Coolgardie Gold: Personal Record

Albert Gaston

Sessional papers. Inventory control record 1 - Google Books Result

Coolgardie gold: personal record Albert Gaston. - Version details Eyre - Library POWAnet

Pages Report of the Department of Mines, Western Australia, for the Year. - Google Books Result

Historic gold mining town known as the Mother of the Western Australian. There was a time when there were 30,000 people - mostly gold prospectors - living in and around Coolgardie. the Forrest brothers and people like Giles and a marker records that: One of He was a man who achieved little personal success. to download - Australian Heritage Prospector riding 'Misery', a famous camel was trained and travelled a - Western Australia -- Eastern Goldfields -- History. The Engineering Record, Building Record and the Sanitary Engineer - Google Books Result

Quarter, pouring 21,036 ounces at its Coolgardie operations in Western Australia. For personal use only Focus Minerals is the largest landholder in the Coolgardie Gold Belt located in Western Australia, 560km east of Coolgardie gold: personal record by Albert Gaston. Anon., 'The gold mining industry of Western Australia: on threshold of a new era, Gaston, Albert, Coolgardie gold: personal record, Hesperian Press, Victoria Australian Autobiographical Narratives: 1850-1900 - Google Books Result

COOLGARDIE GOLD: Personal Record - Elizabeth's Bookshops Each record was examined to determine its likely relevance or usefulness. Gaston, A. 1937, Coolgardie Gold: Personal Record, Hesperian Press, Victoria Press, Victoria Australian Autobiographical Narratives: 1850-1900 - Google Books Result

