Inside Hollywood: Adventures Of An Australian Tabloid Journalist

Fiona Manning

Countries::USA Books Leura Books Australia page 5
Murdoch, whose assets then included "The Australian" and the London. It was meant to be inside stuff, true-truly good gossip. I mean, Liz Smith was writing in the Daily News, but that was primarily a Hollywood-and-celebrity column. If the flamboyant Dunleavy was the Keith Richards of tabloid journalism, then his