La Galatea is a pastoral novel by the Spanish author Miguel de Cervantes Saavedra. The first edition was published in Alcalá de Henares in 1585.

The novel tells the story of Galatea, a shepherdess who falls in love with a shepherd named Alcyone. Their love is forbidden by the gods, and they are eventually separated. The novel is considered one of Cervantes' finest works.

The novel was, of course, La Galatea, whose author always referred to it as an égloga, and the novelist-to-be was Miguel de Cervantes Saavedra. The first edition was published in 1585, one year before the publication of El Quixote.
