Robert Edward Lee Facts, information, pictures Encyclopedia.com Jun 25, 2008 - 3 min - Uploaded by joetool78

General Robert E. Lee's farewell order to the army. joetool78 The rest is gibberish Lee's Farewell Address - Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia Appomattox, Surrender at - Encyclopedia Virginia Gen. Robert E. Lee's Farewell Address to the Army of Northern Virginia General Robert E. Lee, having spent the last year in near constant conflict with Lt. Gen. Ulysses S. Grant and his Army of the Potomac, intended to march his. Fair copy of Lee's Farewell Address to the Army of Northern Virginia. The article presents the text of United States Civil War General Robert E. Lee's farewell speech given to his army on April 10, 1865. Lee says that the Army of The Battle of Gettysburg - Google Books Result May 3, 2011. After the fall of Richmond on April 2–3, Lee and his Army of Northern Lee subsequently issued his famous farewell orders, praising his men's. General Robert E Lee's farewell order to the army - YouTube Apr 10, 2015. Robert E. Lee’s Farewell Address to the Army of Northern Virginia pray that a Merciful God will extend to you His blessing and protection. General Order Number 9 served as Lee's farewell address to his army. The order was distributed the day after the official surrender of the Confederate Army at Lee Bids Farewell to the Army of Northern Virginia - Historical Nov 16, 2011. Confederate General Robert E. Lee's Farewell Address to the Army In the hours following the surrender, Lee and his aide-de-camp, Lt. Col. Robert E. Lee - Document - Signed fair copy of General Order No. 9 Lee's Farewell Address to the Army of Northern Virginia. performed and I earnestly pray that a Merciful God will extend to you His blessings and protection. General Lee's Farewell - The Untold Story of the Lost Draft of. Apr 9, 2011. Parole of General Robert E. Lee and Six of his Staff Officers: 04091865. Poster with reprint of Robert E. Lee's farewell address to the Army of Lee's Farewell - Gettyus.com Mar 24, 2015. The day after he signed articles of surrender to the Union armies under General Ulysses Grant, Army of Northern Virginia commander General April 9, 1865: Robert E. Lee Surrenders to Ulysses S. Grant The next day, Lee issued General Order No. 9, a farewell message to his troops. Explaining his decision to surrender, Lee—whose army was just 35,000 men. Farewell Address of General Robert E. Lee to the Army of Northern Virginia. This copy was presented by Norman Bell shortly after the Civil War to his sister, Robert E. Lee's Farewell to the Army of Northern Virginia Essays and criticism on Henry Steele Commager's America's Robert E. Lee in Commager's quotation from Lee's farewell message to his defeated army in Lee's General Order No. 9 sells for $98,500 The Cotton Boll ?April 10, 1865: Lee's Farewell to the Army of Northern Virginia. The. Apr 10, 2015. Against high odds Lee and his army had come close to creating a new nation. Always outnumbered, with troops often dressed in bags. ill-fed. The surrender of Robert E. Lee, 1865 The Glider. Lee and his Army of Northern Virginia. Confederate General Robert E. Lee issued his Farewell Address, also known as General Order No. 9 sometimes Orders to his Army of Northern Virginia on. Farewell Address Stratford Hall Apr 10, 2015. “Doffing his cap as officers did in the old army, he said, ‘Good On the same day, General Lee issued his farewell message to his troops. First printing of Robert E. Lee's General Orders No. 9 SOLD General Robert E. Lee's Farewell Order. Issued on April 10, 1865, and also known as General Orders Number 9, this is Lee's final message to his Army of General Robert E. Lee's farewell copy to his troops of the Army of ?We republish LEE’S farewell order to his men, so that our readers may see what. marked by unsurpassed courage and fortitude, the Army of Northern Virginia. 9 is, perhaps, the earliest recorded copy of Lee's dignified farewell to his army. General Order No. 9 View fullscreen More informationAfter Lee's farewell drops 'hated foe' phrase - Washington Times Robert E. Lee's farewell to the Army of Northern Virginia is brief and eloquent he thanks his men for their sacrifice and explains that the current circumstances is General Robert E. Lee's Farewell Order Print American Civil War This is very likely the first printing of Lee's farewell to his troops, one of the. For four years, Robert E. Lee and his Army of Northern Virginia represented the America's Robert E. Lee Essay - Critical Essays - eNotes.com Apr 26, 2012. 8x6¼. Rare contemporary fair copy of Robert E. Lee's Farewell Address to his troops, beginning After four years of arduous service marked Lee's Farewell to Troops 'Bells Toll in Woe that Rang in Joy. This Signed by Robert E. LEE is available at Bauman Rare Books. events surrounding his drafting of the Farewell Address: General Lee's order to the Army of General Lee's farewell address to the Army of Northern Virginia. Apr 2, 2011. How Gen. Robert E. Lee’s farewell address to his army, General Order No. 9, came to be written is a short and simple story, easily told. It is Lt. Robert E. Lee's Farewell Address American Civil War Forums General Robert E. Lee's Farewell Address 1865 the Army of Northern Virginia has been compelled to yield to overwhelming numbers and resources. and I earnestly pray that a Merciful God will extend to you His blessings and protection. Lee's Farewell Address to the Army of Northern Virginia. General Lee's farewell address to the Army of Northern Virginia. April 10th, 1865 Robert E. Lee on Amazon.com. "FREE" shipping on qualifying offers. General Robert E. Lee's farewell to his army An Honorable Peace - VirginiaLiving.com Lee surrendered what was left of his army, some 28,000 men. Afterwards, Lee commissioned Colonel Charles Marshall, his Military Secretary to write a. Surrender Documents. Robert E. Lee. WGBH American Experience He could do neither. So, painfully, Lee resigned his army commission in April 1861. Robert E. Lee's Farewell to his Army 10 April 1865. Dictionary of Lee's Farewell Order to His Men. - NYTimes.com Mar 27, 2015. Robert E. Lee's final order to the Army of Northern Virginia. Lee's eloquent, 180-word farewell to his Army of Northern Virginia is not as well