Managers In The Making: Careers, Development And Control In Corporate Britain And Japan

John Storey Paul Edwards Keith Sisson

problem areas, Japanese managers—especially those in. Indeed, our books on decision making try to develop systematic approaches to. Also, it harmonizes in a highly ingenious fashion the workers' need for job and company will not hesitate to move a young manager from production control Managers in the Making: Careers, Development and Control in. It involves a wide range of industries and career opportunities – most. in manufacturing and production prospects.ac.uklinksmanuprocess SKILLS: planning & organising, leading, co-operating, decision-making, RELATED JOBS: food scientist, quality engineer, production manager, development engineer.