Transport Assessment Data Available in Northern Ireland: General. This publication is the sixth report from the 2001 Census of Population for Northern Ireland. It provides a statistical profile of each settlement with a population of 500 or more. The report examines various aspects of the population, including age, sex, marital status, religion, occupation, and housing. It also includes information on migration, birth and death, and a comparison with previous censuses. The data is presented in a variety of formats, including tables, graphs, and maps. The report is an essential resource for policymakers, researchers, and the general public interested in understanding the demographic trends in Northern Ireland. It is available as a PDF file on the website of the Northern Ireland Statistics and Research Agency.
