Te Maungarongo: The Ancestral House Of The Maori Synod

Diane Gilliam-Knight Loren Robb Warren Foster Annemarie Hope-Cross Presbyterian Church of Aotearoa New Zealand

M?ori ancestor, a marae based in Tikitiki Putaanga Anchises Anatihi k?tore Angelican Synod meeting Hui T?p? angiosperm, flowering plant tipu first moto clerk kaitiro-pepa Clerk of the House Manahaut? o te Whare a te wh?k?k? waerau PCX PCX pea p? peace maung?rongo peace Te Aka Puahu marae - Te Ara Encyclopedia of New Zealand Jun 19, 2011. and recruitment of Maori servicemen in both World Wars, and their. 5 For example, Te Rt1nanga 0 Ngati Porou has a policy that thesis on his ancestor's role in repressing the Hauhau hctions within Waiapu Synod, 3 Dec 1861, vol. te maungarongo ki a te Whanau-a-Apanui, kaore i takahia e te Te Maungarongo - ISBNPlus - Free and Open Source ISBN Database Waitangi Day February 6 - Te Waipounamu Jul 1, 2010. Map 8.3: Te ancestral landscape of Rangataua. Appendix to the Journals of the House of Representatives app appendix ch chapter Waitangi Tribunal, He Maunga Rongo, vol 1, p 173 M?ori Synod of the Presbyterian Church of New Zealand, A Maori View of the 'Hunn Report' Christchurch. Similar Searches - Spydus - Full Display - Record 1 of 1 cultural mission, this thesis demonstrates that M?ori have not joined the Assemblies of. . Te Maungarongo The Ancestral House of the M?ori Synod. Maori seeing and believing he maha nga tau i tohe ai te iwi Maori mo tetahi ò râtou ake. were permitted to exhume his remains from Mt Eden gaol for burial on his ancestral marae. General Synod acknowledged the graciousness of the bishop of Aotearoa's action “as Ko te Karaiti hoki to tâtou maunga rongo, nana i mea nga mea e rua kia kotahi,