Planning a Wedding? Here are 17 Mistakes You Should Avoid Bustle Aug 19, 2015. This summer, Khalil published The Loverly Wedding Planner. I think the most important thing that I want all couples to know, and it's a theme that most wedding planners only need to know is about planning a Destination Wedding. So, let's start with some tips.

1. The Difference Between A Wedding Planner And A Coordinator

A wedding planner is someone who is responsible for coordinating all aspects of a wedding day, from the ceremony to the reception. They will help you plan your budget, select vendors, and make sure everything runs smoothly on the big day. A wedding coordinator, on the other hand, is someone who helps you with the planning process and acts as a point of contact for vendors. They may also schedule meetings with vendors, but they are not responsible for the overall coordination of the wedding day.

2. The Importance of a Timeline

A wedding timeline is a plan for the day of the wedding that includes all of the scheduled events and activities. It is important to have a timeline because it helps ensure that everything runs smoothly and on time. timelines can vary depending on the venue, but here is an example of what a basic timeline might look like:

- Morning: Groom and groomsmen get ready
- Morning: Bride and bridesmaids get ready
- Late morning: Ceremony
- Afternoon: Reception
- Evening: Bustle and Bachelorette Party

3. The Difference Between a Day-Of Wedding Coordinator and a Planner

A Day-Of Wedding Coordinator helps coordinate the day of the wedding, while a Planner helps plan the entire wedding process. The Planner is responsible for selecting vendors, creating a budget, and ensuring that all details are taken care of before the wedding day. The Coordinator is responsible for managing the day of the wedding, including coordinating the timing and order of events, as well as any last-minute changes that may occur on the day of the wedding.

4. How to Choose the Right Vendor

Choosing the right vendors is crucial to the success of your wedding. Here are some tips on how to choose the right vendor for your needs:

- Ask for referrals from friends or family
- Research vendors online
- Ask to see their portfolio and samples of their work
- Schedule a consultation with the vendor to discuss your needs and budget

5. The Benefits of Working with a Planner
