After spending a lifetime earning a living, collecting assets, and building a family legacy, it is important that you prepare your estate plan. This plan should take into account the latest changes in federal tax law, as well as Michigan law on estates and trusts. Creating a will, living trust, power of attorney, or living will, and learning how to avoid probate and protect your assets are essential steps in estate planning. It is crucial to have legal counsel that can guide you through the process and ensure your wishes are carried out. If you need assistance with drafting and executing a Last Will and Testament, trust, or advanced directives such as living wills and healthcare powers of attorney, be sure to consult with a professional. Pittsburgh Wills, Trusts, Powers Of Attorney can provide the necessary legal documents to put your clients’ plans into effect, including wills, living revocable and irrevocable trusts, powers of attorney. The classification of trusts and powers is crucial for ensuring the validity of your estate plan.