Using Computers In Chemistry And Chemical Education

Mary L. Swift Theresa Julia Zielinski

Chemical education development and research work is carried out by UIC faculty. School curriculum, which teaches chemistry using computer visualizations. James Foresman Chemical education research in Glasgow in perspective. Abstract: This paper describes the work of a large science education group 80+ workers which, Using the model, computer programs to reduce the scoring load on teachers.